FARMER GROWN FARMER MADE

CHERRY CIDER

"We dabbled with a variety of apple and cherry options with the goal of creating a perfectly balanced food cider. Cherry drinks can often be misleading with the assumption of sweetness being the first thing that comes to mind. This is not a sweet cider. The semi-sweet complexity has been captured in the bottle. This may be one of the most surprising offerings you taste this year."

Marcus Robert
Cidermaker

OVERVIEW

Our Ciders are made from fruit grown on our own farm in the Yakima Valley. Over 40 varieties of cider and heirloom apples are handpicked, pressed, and packaged to produce each of our blended creations. We are committed to producing ciders made from locally farm grown products.
